Atlante Target Europe Fund (the "Fund")
a sub-fund of
ATLANTE FUNDS PLC (the "Company")

Class X Shares – ISIN: IE00BYZZQ212

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation. The Fund will invest primarily in equities of small, medium and large companies listed or traded on recognised European markets such as, but not exclusively, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom.

Essential features of the product which a typical investor should know:

- The Fund may also invest up to 20% of its net asset value ("NAV") of the Fund in bonds issued by commercial, governmental or supranational entities domiciled in EU Member States and denominated in a European currency. Investment in bonds may include investment in investment-grade or below investment-grade corporate or government bonds, which have a fixed or floating rate.
- The Fund may use financial derivative instruments, such as, but not limited to, futures, forwards, foreign exchange contracts (including spot and forward contracts) and options for efficient portfolio management or investment purposes.
- Shares in the Fund may be redeemed on demand, subject to certain restrictions, on each Dealing Day.
- The Company will reinvest any income that it earns from its investments.

Other Information:

- The Fund may be leveraged as a result of its use of financial derivative instruments, but such leverage will not exceed 100% of NAV at any time.
- Investment in the Fund is suitable for investors who expect to maintain their investment over the medium to long term horizon.
- Futures (including financial future contracts) may be used to hedge against market risk, to change the Fund's interest rate sensitivity or to gain exposure to an underlying market. Forward contracts maybe used to hedge or gain exposure to an increase in the value of assets similar to these describe in investment policies section. Options may be used to hedge or achieve exposure to a particular market instead of using a physical security. Foreign exchange contracts may be used to reduce the risk of adverse market changes in exchange rates or to increase exposure to foreign currencies or to shift exposure to foreign currency fluctuations from one country to another.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

The Fund is categorised as 6 for the purposes of this table. This offers a potential of higher risk than a low risk fund however, with greater long term returns. It has been so categorised due to the high volatility of the underlying securities and its benchmark.

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'

Investment in the Fund carries with it a degree of risk (which may change over time) which may not adequately be captured by the indicator:

- Market risk, changes in economic conditions can affect adversely the prospects of the Fund
- Operating risks and the risks relating to the safekeeping of assets
- Custodial risks including safe keeping of assets
- Risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time
- FDI use may increase or reduce the risks to underlying assets

Further details of risks associated with an investment in the Fund are set out in the Prospectus and Fund Supplement.
