Investment Policy *

Atlante Target Italy is a long-only equity fund that invests at least 80% of its assets in equities with particular focus on Italian and small-mid caps. The net exposure will be between 80% and 100% of the asset allocation. The fund adopts a bottom-up approach focusing on absolute variations combined with a top-down overlay.

Commentary

The Fund slightly outperformed its benchmark this month thanks to the good performances registered by the main holdings despite a cautious positioning (c. 85% average exposure). The main positive contributors to the Fund's performance were Cementir, ASTM, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Mondadori and Aeffe. Cementir gained outperforming the sector as the company traded at a steep discount to peers while the outlook for FY 2017 is positive. ASTM gained strongly supported by the presentation of the new 2017-2021 business plan. FCA rose amid growing visibility on 2017 and 2018 targets and potential M&A activities. Mondadori rose as the CEO reiterated 2017 targets and potential M&A deals, while the company continued its buy-back plan. Aeffe gained as the company posted positive Q2 results and a broker raised estimates and target price. The main detractors to the Fund performance during the month were Autogrill and d'Amico International Shipping. Autogrill was clearly penalized by the USD weakness. D'Amico International Shipping dropped following very weak Q2 results and it was also penalized by USD weakness. During the month we took profit on Intesa Sanpaolo and ASTM, while we increased the stakes in Autogrill, Aeffe and Eni.
